That, on Friday, July 12, 2013 at approximately 0452 hours, a 911 emergency telephone call was received at the QV Emergency Dispatch Center reporting a fire alarm located at 385 Putnam Pike, in Killingly, CT. The Attawaugan Fire Department as well as mutual aid assistance from Dayville, Williamsville, Community, and East Putnam Fire Departments was dispatched to the fire. Upon the arrival of the members of the Attawaugan Fire Department, they saw smoke coming from the eaves of the building. Firefighters entered the building locating a female in a bedroom. The female was identified as Carol Lynn Holden (DOB: 05/24/1957), the renter of the above residence. The Eastern District Major Squad assigned to Troop D and detectives from State Police Fire Explosion Investigation Unit were requested to conduct the investigation. After an investigation it was determined that Carol Lynn Holden had set the fire. There were no injuries sustained as a result of this fire. Holden was placed under arrest and transported to Troop D. Holden was charged with Arson 2nd Degree, Criminal Damage of Landlord's Property 1st Degree and Breach of Peace 2nd Degree. Holden is being held on a $75,000.00 cash/surety bond and given a court date at GA. 11, Windham Superior Court, for 07/15/2013.

The case remains active at this time.
